Award Criteria/Requirements

Origin

C. Jon Wineland represented CWA members of the NJ Judiciary for over 20 years. Jon was known for his fiery defense of members' rights, his tireless organizing, and his commitment to social justice. He was an important leader in the original Judiciary organizing campaign, bringing union rights to thousands of unrepresented public employees. Jon passed away in 2001.

Virginia Wolf represented State Worker and local government members for over 30 years, serving NJ Department of Labor, Motor Vehicles, Treasury, Burlington County, and municipal groups. Virginia was "old school," strongly advocating through thousands of grievances, disciplines, and workplace issues. Everyone who came in contact with Virginia knew her favorite thing was to confront management on behalf of our members. Virginia passed away in 2011.

Jon and Virginia worked tirelessly protecting workers' rights and building union strength their entire adult lives. Both were comrades, friends and staunch advocates for ALL working people. It is the desire of Local 1036 to keep both Jon and Virginia's memories alive by annually honoring others who also exhibit these qualities.
